

Helping CAM Companies Grow

About Us

CINC Capital, LLC is a financial services company providing capital for acquisitions of small to medium sized community association management ("CAM") companies. We have decades of experience with seasoned and certified business professionals in the community association management industry and business acquisition financing.

Our Mission

To assist small to medium sized CAM companies to secure the financing you need to acquire added market share, buyout partners or refinance business acquisition loans.

How can CINC Capital help Buyers?
