

Helping CAM Companies Grow

CINC Capital, LLC

Our mission is to assist owners in acquiring or selling community association management companies. We provide loans (financial capital) and the how-to (intellectual capital).

About Us

CINC Capital, LLC is a financial services company providing financial and intellectual capital to the community association management (CAM) industry.

We are a group of experienced and certified professionals with over 40 years of history in the CAM industry with lending and business acquisition financing experience. Dedicated to providing services to enhance the profitability and growth of our clients. Additionally, when you want to transition out of the "owner" role, we want you to maximize your years of hard work.

Our Products and Services

CINC Capital, LLC provides advisory services to buy or sell a CAM company. Planning and executing for an acquisition includes key steps: identifying a suitable target buyer and seller, negotiations, business valuation, due diligence, and capital.
